

Education

- 2022–25* Ph.D., Communication Science, University of Vienna
Emotional Misinformation (EMOMIS) is a joint project of the Computational Communication Science Lab (Annie Waldherr, Jula Lührling) and the Complexity Science Hub (Hannah Metzler, David Garcia, Apeksha Shetty), funded by the WWTF Vienna.
- 2029–22 M.Sc. (research), Communication Science, University of Amsterdam
Thesis: “Citizen-Driven Disinformation Campaigns: The Disruptive Interplay of Digital Media Ecologies and Individual Susceptibility” supervised by Dr. Michael Hameleers (Excellent, graded 8.5)
- 2015–18 B.A., German Literature and Language (major) & Communication and Media (minor), University of Bremen
Thesis: “Provoking, revising, denying – Calculated ambivalence used as strategy for right-wing populist communication in Germany’s Bundestag election battle 2017” supervised by Prof. Dr. Ingo Warnke (Distinction, graded 1,0)

Research Experience

- 2022– Junior Fellow, Complexity Science Hub
- 2021–22 Research Assistant, CSH, (Supervisor: Dr. Hannah Metzler)
- 2020–21 Student Assistant, ASCoR, (Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Judith Möller)

Publications

 Google Scholar

† → Equal contribution

*Expected.

Journal Articles

Working papers

Presentations

Talks

Teaching

University of Vienna

2024 Guest lecturer, Misinformation in den Sozialen Medien [Slides]
(CODE VO SOME B)

Academic Advising

Undergraduate

2023 Nele Hapig, University of Konstanz, Master's thesis

Academic Service

Journal Reviewer

2024 The International Journal of Press/Politics
2023 Social Media + Society

Other Experience

2020–21 Elected board member, JEF Deutschland, Berlin
2019 Communications manager, Talking Europe, Berlin
2018 Project manager of a theater festival, Theater Bremen, Bremen

Last updated: October 8, 2024